

WJC Integrity Letter 2

Thursday 11 September 2018

Dear Members and Continental Confederations

As you know, the LI NING BWF World Junior Championships is take place in Markham, Canada, next month.

Please forward this notice to your Team Manager.

This notice contains information about some tasks that managers and players must do before going to Canada:

1. Complete a BWF Integrity Questionnaire online.
2. Register each athlete on IOC's Athlete365 online integrity e-learning portal and WADA's ADeL online anti-doping e-learning portal and complete the education online.
3. Brief your team on the fundamentals – anti-doping and anti-match manipulation – so you are ready. See some useful links to material on the BWF website.

1. BWF Integrity Questionnaire

As in previous years, the BWF is asking all athletes, coaches, team managers, athlete support personnel to complete an integrity questionnaire.

The questionnaire consists of 16 questions and covers the topic areas of anti-doping and anti-match manipulation.

The questionnaires are available in 7 languages and the links to each questionnaire can be found below.

2. Education On-line Before the Championships

The BWF is requesting that each athlete and support personnel member sign up to the following educational portals:

Athlete365 (IOC)

ADeL (WADA)

Here is a brief overview of each of the educational portals.

Athlete365

This programme contains e-learning activities as well as a 10-question quiz.

The 10 questions are related to various topics such as Cheating, Betting, Inside Information and Obligation to Report.

Upon successful completion of the quiz, a certificate is issued.

Prior to the LI NING BWF World Junior Championships, the BWF is requesting that all athletes register on Athlete365 and complete the anti-match manipulation quiz.

The content exists in more than 10 different languages and it is accessible on any device including smartphones, tablets or laptops.

This should not take longer than 15 minutes.

How to access:

1. Access the IOC Athlete365 platform: <https://www.olympic.org/athlete365/>
2. Create a new account or enter your login credentials. Please make sure that the fields (i.e. sport, country) are properly filled in so that you appear in the reporting.
3. Click on your name in the top menu, then choose "My Classes"
4. Open and run "Awareness raising programme – manipulation of competitions" in the language of your choice.
5. Read the e-learning and complete the Quiz
6. Obtain your IOC Course Certificate

The quiz should be successfully completed by Friday 02 November 2018

ADeL

The anti-doping e-learning platform (ADeL) will serve as a central hub for all of WADA's e-learning courses and resources and offers access to all topics related to clean sport and anti-doping.

It offers courses for athletes, coaches, doctors, administrators and anyone interested in learning more about anti-doping and protecting the values of clean sport.

This programme contains various e-learning resources to increase your anti-doping knowledge.

Further information about the ADeL portal can be found at this video link -
