FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW

In all cases, the host is expected to pay for all costs involved in the delivery of the tournament, and as detailed further in the hosting contract to be signed between BWF and the successful host. Costs include but are not limited to:

Venue and practice facility hire as described more fully in the earlier parts of the document, to include hire of all venues and facilities for the required number of days during and after the event.

Media facilities to include the provision of shared work stations with access to internet.

Local organisation transport, hotel and subsistence costs (as needed by volunteers), event marketing and local promotion, security and stewarding, media facilities, office and communications expenditure, souvenir programme, appropriate staffing and volunteers, etc.

Court Officials to include the accommodation and per diem allowances of the local technical officials, and doctors.

In certain areas where BWF is expected to have a major operational input, such as with the organisation of flights and accommodation of officials, it is acceptable for bidding organisations to propose a budget limit that can be agreed between BWF and the Organising Committee and used by both parties in the organisation of the event.

Entry Fees

Host can charge players and team officials an entry fee to support the operations of the tournament. The amount needs to be approved by the BWF.

BWF Host Grant

The BWF will provide a support grant for host to assist in the operations of the tournament. The total amount given will vary between the levels of tournament.

Tournaments	Amount	Total
Grade 2 Level 1	USD 5,500 operational grant USD 4,000 support for streaming	USD 9,500
Grade 2 Level 2	USD 7,500 operational grant	USD 7,500
Grade 2 Level 3	USD 3,500 operational grant	USD 3,500

Budget

Hosts must provide a proposed budget as part of its bid application. BWF may also request from the host to provide a letter of support/confirmation from organisations / sponsor / governmental organisations that the member is supposed to receive funding to run the tournament.

It is important that you submit your first draft budget using the format below. If you are awarded the tournament (and where specified on part of the final agreement), you will also be required to report your accounts in this same format.

Please use US$ where possible, but if you require or prefer to budget and account in another currency, please state clearly the currency proposed.
