COVID 19 - protocols

1. Netherlands Entry Requirement

To determine what applies to you, it is important whether you are traveling to the Netherlands from a low or high COVID risk country. Below you can read what you have to do.

A. Are you from a low COVID-19 risk country?

On the website of the Dutch government you will find for which countries this applies:

<https://www.government.nl/topics/coronavirus-covid-19/visiting-the-netherlands-from-abroad/eu-list-of-safe-countries>

No negative test result or self-quarantine required

If you are coming from a country where the risk of contracting COVID-19 is low (a safe country) you do not need to show a negative test result when you travel to the Netherlands. You are also not required to self-quarantine when you arrive in the Netherlands.

B. Do you come from a (very) high COVID-19 risk country?

1. You must submit a negative test result when the country you travel from is not on the list of safe countries (see A). For more information about the the mandatory test go to:

<https://www.government.nl/topics/coronavirus-covid-19/visiting-the-netherlands-from-abroad/mandatory-negative-test-results-and-declaration>

2. For participants, coaching staff and officials of the

Yonex Dutch Open, there is an exception to the quarantine obligation, which applies to these high risk countries.

What do you need to do to qualify under this exception?

- a. Every participant, coaching staff and official needs an official letter of invitation from the Netherlands Olympic Committee (NOC*NSF) to enter the Netherlands. To this end, we will send a separate form to the countries where this applies after registration for the Yonex Dutch Open has been closed. To fill in that form we need the following information per person: name, role (athlete or supervisor), passport number, date of birth, date of travel, place of origin, date of departure and travel destination.
